BIBNNIAL EXAMINATION OF INVALID PENSION OFFICE, August 10, 1863.

The next biennial examination of Army Invalid Pensioners, required by an act of Congress approved March 3, 1859, will take place on and after the 4th day of September, 1863, and must precede the payment of pensions then falling due. No certificate of such examination hereing determines the control of the control of payment of pensions then falling due. No certificate of such examination bearing date prior to the 4th proximo will have any validity.

All examinations under the above-named law are required to be made by two surgeons. No certificate of examination made by unauthorized civil surgeons will be accepted, unless it is clearly impracticable for the pensioner to obtain the certificate of two regularly appointed surgeons.

The fees for examination ($3 in the aggregate for each case) will be refurded to the pensioner examined, on presenting to the Pension Agent a receipt for the amount from the examining surgeons; but in no case will fees paid to unauthorized civil surgeons be refunded.

Those who are pensioned (1) by a special act of Congress; (2) for the loss of arm. leg, hand or foot, or (3) for no other disability than the loss of a finger, a toe, or an eye, (not eyesight,) or than the privation of some like essential part of the pensioner's body, are exempt from the biennial examination. Those whose pensions commence at a date later than March 4, 1853 will also be exempt from examination until September 4, 1855, unless an earlier examination is specially required by their certificates

Should it be found, as a result of the examination. Should it be found, as a result of the examination

Should it be found, as a result of the examination in any case, that the pensioner's disability no longer exists, the pension will cease. Should the degree of disability be found to have diminished, without disappearing altogether, the pensioner will be paid at the rate corresponding with the degree estimated by the examining surgeons, and no longer as specified in his pension certificate. No pension can be increased, except on formal application to this office, and by the issue of a new certificate.

A complete list of authorized Examining Surgeons, soon to be printed, will be furnished to pensioners on application. signers on application.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. Aug. 28 .- Lieutenant Oolonel Lockwood, commanding the Seventh Virginia Union regiment. reports a series of robberies of the Third division, Secondarmy corps' mail, continuing from the eighth to the twenty-fifth of August. Several thousand dollars in Government and private drafts, checks, and funds have been purloined, and the letters covering them fund along the route. The mail carriers are under arrest. The public are cautioned against negotiating checks or drafts from this division unless coming through responsible channels.

His division marched direct from Wittsburg to the White river, only sending in a train for supplies to Helena. Gen. Davidson's expedition up the river-of two gunboats and a battalion of infantry-captured two Rebel steamers, the Tom Kuggs and Kaskaskia, in complete running order, and found that Marmaduke had crossed the major part of his cavalry at Scarcy. Marmaduke destroyed his bridge of flats. The National troops lost two men killed and five wounded; one naval officer was wounded. General Steele was to leave Helena on the 17th. The enemy were said to be in force and entrenching at Bayou

Meta, twelve miles from Little Rock. Davidson's troops were to cross White river on the 17th. Strict discipline in his army had commended him to the favor of the people of Arkansas, and had produced so good an effect that it was believed Arkansas would be easily reclaimed to the Government of the Union The people were much embittered against the maranders and guerrillas of both sides, but if a proper Government was instituted, and rallying points were appointed for protection of life and opinion, with the necessary civil machinery, it was believed Arkansas could be made a loyal State in ninety days, with her representatives in Congress. It is even said that Judge Sebastian, who still holds a seat in

At any moment which it may deem most favorable for the purpose, it may make a new attempt to enforce it; and as certainly as it does so it will goad the working classes of this and the neighboring cities to resistance. And if a new insurrection should be the result there is every indication that it will not be so purposeless or so leaderless as the last, and that men will spring to the front who will organize the popular anger to political ends, and, making bloody examples of the house-burners and thieves who may attempt to turn the public commotions to the purposes of plunder, will do what they can to invest social riot with the dignity of political revolution.'

ENLISTING REBEL PRISONERS. - A statement was made a few days since to the effect that four or five hundred of the rebel prisoners at Fort Delaware had taken the oath of allegiance, and were mustered into Col. Tevis' cavalry regiment. The Baltimore American learns that immediately on the fact becoming known to the Secretary of War he annulled the whole proceeding, and directed that the new recruits should be scattered among various regiments. It was apprehended that so large a hody of men, hitherto inimical to the U.S. Government, would prove dangerous if permitted to be in one regiment, in more than one respect; and if they were captured by the rebels there would be a certainty of their not being treated as prisoners of war, but executed as deserters.

CAMP MEETING CORRESPONDENCE. CAMP IN SHIPLEY'S WOODS,

Anne Arundel Co., Md.; August 27, 1463. After I closed my letter on Tuesday Rev. S. M Dickson preached from-"But tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem until ye be imbued with power from on high." During the delivery of this sermen a light sprinkle of rain fell upon the congregation, and they took refuge in the large tent, where the preacher finished his discourse. At night Rev. John Thrush preached from Luke, 13th chapter and 5th verse, after which the congregation engaged in singing and prayer until eleven o'clock, which concluded the services of the day.

Yesterday morning an experience meeting was held, at which a large number of persons related their experiences, some of which were very interesting. Rev. W.S. Edwards preached at eleven o'clock from Manhew, 7th chapter, 13th and 14th verses; and in the afternoon a powerful sermon was preached by Rev. B. P. Brown, of Wesley Chapel-subject, "Lor's Warning." Rev. G. W. Hobbs preached at night, and the services were concluded with about twenty penitents at the altar, among whom were several conversions.

This morning, at 8 o'clock, the third experi-ence meeting was held, and continued for an hour and a half, and was very interesting; after which a prayer meeting was held, when a large number presented themselves at the altar, and many conversions were reported. At 11 o'clock Rev. E. P. Pnelps, Presiding Elder, preached a happy and soul-cheering discourse from 18th Psalm, 12th and 13th verses, during which he gave a sketch of the rise and progress of the Methodist Episcopal Church, howing that although she was young, she has grown fast and strong; three millions of souls having been converted through her instrumentality, and she still being in her youth, Thousands of conversions had taken place in the woods, barns and school-houses; her doctrines are suited to all conditions, colors and limes. For an hour or more the attention of a large congregation was riveted, and with the exception of the sound of the speaker's voice, the utmost silence prevailed.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was then administered to a large number of believers, Rev. J. N. B. Morgan, Presiding Elder of L'altimore District, the senior minister on the ground, conducting the consecration services. At 3 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. H. M. Harmon, of Baltimore, preached a powerful ser-mon from Daniel, 2d chapter and 40th verse, and held the closest attention of the congregation for above an hour. WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Last night Rev. J. J. Largent preached from 1st John, 3d chapter and 2d verse, after which Rev. H. McNemar exhorted in a powerful manner, and on an invitation being given, above fifty mourners approached the altar, the rails being torn down to make room for them. The meeting was kept up until twelve o'clock, many of the mourners being converted, when they all repaired to one of the large tents, where the exercises were varied until five o'clook. The Presiding Elder, Mr. Phelps, then proposed that they march around the circle, and led by him, nearly all on the ground marched around three times, singing different hymns on the way. The exercises in the tent were continued until after daybreak, and many other conversions were reported.

deserted; the Washingtonians leaving and arriving in the city about noon, all highly pleased with their "one week's life in the woods." There were several peculiar things about this meeting; one of which was the dail assemblage at the stand for family prayer instead of at the different tents. Politics were discarded, and no Good order prevailed from first to last; indeed some persons who have attended over fitty camps say that seldom has there been a more orderly camp held. It is said also that the sentiments of many persons underwent a great change; many who came as lukewarm Union. ists or sympathizers going away strong friends of the Government. Whether this change was owing to any peculiar conviction we know not, but probably as the spiritual man was renewed more wisdom was given to the carnal man.

being reported and the membership much strengthened. All who visited the camp are loud in praise of the hospitality of the people, and but few who attended it will miss another camp in that section, if possible for them to attend it. The people on that circuit have already signified their intention to hold another meeting there

ington correspondent of a Philadelphia paper I hear through trustworthy sources that the South has, as yet, taken no measures for the equipment and drilling of the slaves for active service in the field, though should it be finally driven to this necessity, their services will undoubtedly be brought into requisition. Altogether, it is computed that the South has at its command from eight hundred thousand to one million able-bodied slaves, which it could place in the field as soon as armed, but it is not calculated to draw but say one fifth of this number, the remainder being requisite for their accustomed services on the plantations. When the measure is fairly forced upon the South, we shall probably witness a levy of about 200,000 of her slaves, which will leave not far from 700,000 able-bodied hands (not including the females) to carry on the agricultural pursuits and black population. A French work, recently published. maintains that in every 10,500 years the waters of the sea pass from one pole to the other, submerging and overwhelming in their passage the earth and all its inhabitants. According to the author of this theory the last of these deluges occurred 4,500 years ago, and the next one is due in 6,000 years.
